The defendant was represented by Assistant Federal Public Defender Jeffrey L. Thomas and the United States was represented by Assistant U.S. Attorney Martin J. Conboy, IV. The government moved for detention. However, the defendant is in state custody. Therefore, the government's oral motion for detention shall be held in abeyance.

I find that the Report alleges probable cause and that the defendant should be held to answer for a final dispositional hearing before Chief Judge Bataillon.

IT IS ORDERED:

2. The government's motion for detention pursuant to the Bail Reform Act, is held in abeyance pending the defendant's coming into federal custody.

3. The U.S. Marshal is authorized to return the defendant to the custody of Nebraska state authorities pending the final disposition of this matter and the U.S. Marshal for the District of Nebraska is directed to place a detainer with the correctional officer having custody of the defendant.

DATED this 23rd day of August, 2010.
